WILLS WINS SHOOTOFF

Leaders Make Their Miss in Travers Island Contest After Running 3 Straights.

Just as they were in sight of a perfect run of 100 clay birds at the Travers Island traps of the New York Athletic Club yesterday Tracey H. Lewis and C. F. Wills missed the single disc that would have meant so much to them Had they gone clear through the last string of twenty-five birds as they had the first three quarter-centuries they would have set a mark for the season's comscore of 99 out of a possible 100 clays was returned, but only once. As it is, Lewis and Wills established a mark ee the year through, for it is seldom indeed that two of the field of shooters that turn out every Saturday and Sunday together get as high as within one excellent conditions for the nimrods, and with a number of the tournament regulars going in their best form the two leaders simply were pressed into something exceptional. W. B. Ogden and Ralph L. Spotts, two of the occasional winners at Travers Island, touched 97, and there were several 96s and other totals not far removed from that mark. After doing so well it was rather unfortunate for Lewis that he should lose the scratch prize in the should lose of the scratch prize the prize for the scratch prize the scratch prize the prize for the scratch prize the prize for the scratch prize for the scratch prize the prize for the scratch prize for the scra

There was another name that was written large on the day's record, pamely, that of E. Milliken, who broke twenty-five straight to annex the special scratch prize, took the 100 bird handicap after a shootoff, and also corrilled the Travers Island event.

Not to be left behind when it came to shattering them straight, G. F. Hutching pulverized fifty in a row to earn the leg on the Buermeyer cup, and he also shared with O. C. Grinnell the bonors of the doubles special. The distance special also went to Grinnel, and in the special also went to Grinnel, and in the special handicap J. F. Conners made the victor's bracket after forcing a number of rivals to bite the dust in the shootoff.

a number of rivals to ble the disc.

The New York Athletic Club nimrods are looking forward to their 200 target shoot on Tuesday for the George L. Lyon Memorial cup. This event, held annually on Washington's Birthday, is in memory of George L. Lyon, who was one of the best shote, as well as one of the best loved, in America. The winner will have his name engraved on the large cup, which is held in the clubhouse at Travers Island, and will receive a seventeen inch replica of sme. The competition begins at 11:30.

Next Saturday at Travers Island

Next Saturday at Travers Island there will be an informal team race among all clubs in the Metropolitan disrict. The N. Y. A. C. will name seven men, the five scorers of which will
